

EARLY-STAGE TYPE 1 DIABETES NATIONAL NETWORK

Website Link

Clinical Leadership

- Clinical direction and standards
- Evidence-based guidance
- Quality improvement
- Workforce development

Management Leadership

- Strategic oversight
- Governance and policies
- Commissioning
- Improving data collections

MDT Leadership

East
Midlands

East of England

NE & North
Cumbria

North
West

South
West

Thames
Valley

SE Coast &
London

Wessex

Wales

West
Midlands

Yorkshire &
Humber

Healthcare Professional Peer Support Groups

- Connecting and supporting healthcare professionals to deliver the best care possible for children, young people and adults with Early-Stage T1D
- Formed from wider network members and consisting of paediatricians, adult diabetologists, nurses, dietitians, psychologists, primary care colleagues, researchers, laboratory expertise and allied HCPs
- Work collaboratively with NHS England, NHS Wales, ICBs, NICE, NPDA, NDA, colleagues in Scotland and Northern Ireland, charity partners, patients and families, professional organisations and industry

Leading the identification, monitoring and treatment of Early-Stage T1D

Patient identification

- Autoantibody testing
- Identification of those at-risk
- Risk stratification
- Best practice sharing
- Development of the evidence base

Monitoring

- Stage progression monitoring
- Data interpretation
- Remote and face-to-face reviews
- Outcome tracking and feedback

Treatment

- Early-Stage T1D therapies
- Preservation of beta-cell function
- Clinical pathway implementation
- Shared learning and innovation

Regular joint paediatric and adult meetings