

National Children and Young People's Diabetes Network
Psychology Conference
Tuesday 31 January 2023 - 1000-1600 hours
Via MSTeams

1000	Virtual Meeting Opens	All
1010	Welcome	Dr Gilly Hopper, Lead Psychologist, Children and Young People's North West Diabetes Network
1015	Conflict and Collaboration in Diabetes Management	Dr Vincent McDarby, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Our Lady's Children's Hospital, Dublin, Ireland
1100	Break	All
1120	Preventing Type 1 Diabetes and Disordered Eating: What can we learn from the lived experience of T1DE?	Aisling Piggot, Lead Paediatric Dietitian at Cardiff and Vale UHB/ RCBC funded PHD student at Cardiff Metropolitan University, Cardiff
1230-1310	Lunch	All
1310-1330	National Psychology Standards	Dr Gilly Hopper on behalf of Dr Claire Semple, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Medicine and Long-Term Conditions, Bristol Royal Children's Hospital, Bristol
1330	Workshop 1 Autism and Diabetes – what are the issues raised with working with young people with diabetes in clinic settings and in the service generally and what adaptations/resources are psychologists using to help support them and their families. High HbA1c clinics – what are the issues that psychologists have encountered and what ways/solutions have psychologists developed to address these?	All

	Patient Engagement and Inequality – what are the difficulties that young people encounter in accessing diabetes services and what are the solutions/adaptations that psychologists have developed? Technology and Pumps – what are the psychological issues raised by using technology and how have psychologists addressed these?
1415	Workshop 2 Autism and Diabetes – what are the issues raised with working with young people with diabetes in clinic settings and in the service generally and what adaptations/resources are psychologists using to help support them and their families. High HbA1c clinics – what are the issues that psychologists have encountered and what ways/solutions have psychologists developed to address these? Patient Engagement and Inequality – what are the difficulties that young people encounter in accessing diabetes services and what are the solutions/adaptations that psychologists have developed? Technology and Pumps – what are the psychological issues raised by using technology and how have psychologists addressed these?	All
1500	Break	All
1520	Feedback from Groups	All
1555	Conference Round Up and Close	Dr Tracey Jansen, Lead Psychologist, East of England Children and Young People's Diabetes Network